Testimonials

"We so appreciated your session and your entrepreneurial spirit, your drive for excellence, and your encouragement to all to be fearless in pursuing possibilities. Those present were also impressed with your versatility, and loved your very positive energy"

Mary Mukhtarian
WOVI, Women of Visionary Influence

"I was at your TSAE session regarding boosting sponsor renewals. This was, by far, the most meaningful session I attended during the conference and the advice you gave has already paid off – one of our sponsors has already agreed to move from $2500 to $10,000 per year! "

Michelle Smith Executive Director, Fast Growth School Coalition

Ann Ranson works with people and organizations who place purpose at the center of performance. Her programs draw on decades of experience in sales & marketing, nonprofit strategy, and leadership development, including several years spent training on women in business. She earned membership in NSA in 2008 and shares programs focused on reimagining success and celebrating age.
